Annual Public Meeting To Be Held Dec. 5th. Tenders for Coal Opened. City in Very Healthy Condition. Wetaskiwin Debentures in Demand. Hospital By-Laws To Be Amended.

The regular meeting of the city council was held on Tuesday evening with all the members present except His Worship and Ald. Dugdale. Minutes of the last regular and special meeting and court of revision were read.

There appears to be a demand for Wetaskiwin's debentures, as a representative of Terry, Briggs & Sleighton (Bank-Noxon & Co., and Burgess & Co., made offers on asking for information re the bonds. The communications were referred to the finance committee.

A. Gross, secretary-treasurer of the Sacred Heart Separate school board, wrote stating that as Peter Schmitz had resigned from the board, there would be three vacancies to fill at the forthcoming election. Gothard-Gross-That Mr. Roberts make the necessary arrangements to have the vacancies filled.

A letter was received from Blythe & Baldwin, auditors, stating that Mr. Blythe had severed his connection with the firm, and that hereafter the firm name would be Baldwin & Dowe. The letter was filed.

The auditor's report for the quarter ending Sept. 30th, making a recommendation in the matter of checking the weigh scale tickets, and stating that the city's book were in order, was then read. Gothard-Gross-That better system of handling the weigh scale tickets be adopted, and that the report be received and filed. Carried.

The next communication was from the registrar of the Northern Alberta Land Registration District, asking for a copy of the assessment roll to be healthy condition of the city the report was adopted and ordered filed. A petition was then presented by parties interested asking that an electric light be installed at the corner of Lansdowne and Railway street west (Prince of Wales Hotel corner.) After a brief discussion the matter was referred to the Electric Light committee to make a report as soon as prices for the proposed tungsten clusters are received.

Thomas Gothard-That the matter of procuring extra clothing for the police force, be referred to the police committee with power to act.

Tenders for the supply of coal for the city were then opened and were as follows:

D. C. Smith-Carbutt nut and egg 3.25, lump, $4.20. All f.o.b. Wetaskiwin.

Enman-Gothard-That the tenders be referred to the power committee to bring in a report at next meeting, and that they be empowered to order samples of coal from any company they deem advisable. Carried.

The fire and water committee reported on the report of the Fire Underwriters' Association, and recommended that no action be taken in the matter of some slight amendments which it was suggested might be made to the by-laws, and recommended that the entire report of the Underwriters, which was quite lengthy, but interesting, be read to the entire council. This was done. After a brief discussion the report was ordered filed.

The monthly accounts were then passed for payment. At Ald. Enman gave notice that at the next meeting of the council he would introduce a by-law to amend the hospital by-law. By-law No. 252, providing for the payment of $15 to each of the mayor and the aldermen for their services during the year 1913, was read three times and finally passed by the council and secretary-treasurer was authorized to sign same.

Enman-Gothard-That the annual bill of the ratepayers be paid in Angus Theatre on Friday evening, December 5th. Carried. Enman-Gothard-That the discount by law for the payment of taxes be extended to Tuesday, December 16th. Carried.

Alex. Knox, Lee Jordan and Elmer Campbell to Pay Damages

Lose Malicious Prosecution Suit and Knox Has To Pay A. Stewart Watt $3,000 and Costs. Jordan and Campbell Pay $1 Each and Costs.

Alexander Knox, plaintiff and ex-mayor of Wetaskiwin was ordered to pay $3,000 and Lee Jordan and Elmer Campbell, also of Wetaskiwin, $1 each and costs on the $3000 scale to Arthur S. Watt, barrister, of Wetaskiwin by a jury after two hours' deliberation in Edmonton on Thursday before His Honor Chief Justice Henry Satterday. The plaintiff claimed $25,000 from defendants for malicious prosecution.

Plaintiff's firm of Watt and Watt claimed to have been appointed solicitors for the Wetaskiwin Undertaking company and handed collections and performed other professional business for the company. Among the business entrusted to their care, they claimed, was the recovery of $155.25 from a resident of Leduc, and a writ was issued against him. It was alleged by the defendants that the plaintiff went to Leduc and as a result received a cheque for $75 which included the cost of the writ. The cheque did not bear the date on which it was granted being post dated. Plaintiff claimed that upon his return to Wetaskiwin he reported to the secretary of the undertaking company that he had received the cheque, and that he would pay it into his firm's account for collection, and that if the cheque was honored, he would account to the secretary of the company for the proceeds in due course.

Knox later wrote to Mr. C. D. Smith of the secretary of the company stating that he had been instructed by the directors of the company that the secretary's services were to be dispensed with on 1st August, and requesting that he produce the statement of his collections and of the papers and notes of the company.

Another communication was then sent by Knox to the firm of Watt and Watt, saying that he had been appointed secretary and solicitor for the company; calling upon them for all collections made by them on behalf of the company. After a delay of a day or two, the secretary wrote to the defendant Knox refusing to recognize Knox's authority for the company in respect of the legal matters of the directors, and the Plaintiff Watt also challenged the legality of Knox's appointment on various grounds.

Defendant Campbell then, it is claimed called at the office of the plaintiff's firm to make inquiries regarding a number of outstanding accounts four days after the cheque had been paid on July 17. He was told the money was expected that day. It was ascertained by Knox that the cheque had been charged to the customers account with the Merchants Bank at Leduc on the 17th, while Campbell called at the office of Watt on July 21. Campbell and Jordan reported the matter to

It was claimed by the plaintiff that Knox, without making any demands of the plaintiff, and without applying to the secretary of the company for any information, then entered into a conspiracy to lay a false information against the plaintiff to the effect that he had fraudulently converted to his own use the sum of $155.25.

As a result, Watt was arrested and detained in the cells of the Wetaskiwin and Shantz, said the plaintiff, for police court for an hour and a quarter being finally released on $3,000 bail.

At a preliminary inquiry, the agent of the attorney-general advised the justice of the peace that the evidence failed to disclose any support of the charge, but at the urgent solicitation of Knox, Justices J. C. McLean and Shantz, said the plaintiff, for trial. Watt was discharged by His Honor Judge Taylor in the Wetaskiwin district court on July 29, the judge remarking that this was not a case of prosecution but of persecution and severity, censuring the Justices for their conduct in the matter.

The evidence for the defence was that of the Plaintiff Watt, K. C. and by Mr. J. Stewart Watt, The Defendants Knox and Jordan were defended by Mr. Alex. Stewart, K. C. and the Defendant Campbell by Mr. R. W. Manley.

The case lasted over Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It is reported the Plaintiff were Chief Constables James, Wetaskiwin; L. C. McLean, J. C. McLean, Wetaskiwin; and the Plaintiff, The Plaintiff also put in evidence the examinations for discovery of all the Defendants.

The evidence for the defence was that of the three Defendants and of Bill Moore, Manager of the Wetaskiwin Undertaking Company.

Mr. S. B. Woods objected the defendant Knox to a searching cross examination as to his past career and his absence from Wetaskiwin last year. Mr. Knox stated that he left Wetaskiwin openly with the intention of returning to Scotland; that he first went to Edmonton, then took a ticket by the train to Calgary; that he took a ticket, still on his way to Scotland, as far as Macleod and that he there received a communication from Scotland which induced him to change his mind and go for a holiday to Honolulu. He took a ticket from Macleod to Portland, Oregon, another from there to San Francisco, and from there he went to Honolulu.

Knox further stated that he had no malice against the Plaintiff and when asked by Mr. Woods if the monetary his conduct had been influenced by undue love and kindness, he claimed that he did not understand the meaning of these expressions.

Mr. Bill Moore in examination in chief stated that the Directors of the Wetaskiwin Undertaking Company were dissatisfied with his change of mind because he did not give them sufficient information as to accounts. In cross examination he admitted that he could not recall meeting any instance in which any complaint had been made that he had always full access to the books and accounts in Watt's possession, which were also open to the Directors, and that he had never been refused any information by Watt. He also admitted that after Watt had got a resolution passed by the Directors that he should report to the Secretary all purchases made by him he had failed to do so, as he objected to doing so, and that after he had made complaint to the Directors against Watt.

Mr. Woods characterized it as a scandalous thing that a man should go into the Witness box to endeavor to make imputations against another man's reputation without being able to substantiate his insinuations to any extent whatever.

The Judge summed up at length and put a number of questions to the jury bearing on the point of probable cause on the part of the defendants in laying on information of a criminal character against Watt. He also dealt fully with the circumstances of the case from which malice could be inferred and stated with reference to Knox having sworn that he had no malice against the Plaintiff, that it was for the jury to consider whether they believed that statement, and that if they did not, they would have to discount the face value of 99 per cent of the sum of Knox's evidence.

The jury after being out for about an hour and twenty minutes announced that they declined to answer the questions put to them, but had arrived at a verdict for the Plaintiff against all the defendants, and assessed the damages at $1,000 each against Jordan and Campbell and $3000 against Knox.

The Chief Justice, after stating that he fully concurred with the verdict, entered judgment against the defendants and found all the defendants liable in the Plaintiff's costs on the scale applicable to the verdict of $3000. Mr. Stewart applied on behalf of Knox and Jordan for a stay of Execution. His Lordship announced that he would stay execution for the amount of damages for ten days, but would grant no stay of execution as costs were not paid.

The case excited much interest among the legal profession in Edmonton the Court being crowded with members of the Bar during the three days which the trial occupied.

ONLY ONCE IN A LIFETIME

It was a pitiful mistake, an error and error.
valued for the railway train, the light was low and dim.
It came at last from the car stepped a daily dance.
And looking up and down the pines she straight into me came.
"Oh! Jack!" she cried; "oh, dear old Jack," and kissed me on the cheek.
Then I looked again and again, and cried: "oh, what a pitiful mistake!" I said: "Forgive me, maiden fair, for I am not your Jack."
And as she said the words, I straightway gave it back.
And since that night I've often stood upon the platform, dim, but only once in a man's whole life do such things come to him.

SOLIDLY PROSPEROUS

Premier Sifton was in Toronto the other day, on his way to Edmonton after the Council of Premiers at Ottawa. He said several things to the "Courier" about the West which were of interest and importance. "The West," said he, "is more solidly prosperous than ever before in its history.
Building, throughout the summer and early fall, has been brisk. I see no reason why it should not continue so until the end of the year. The real estate of the West is in a most healthy condition. The speculative element is almost entirely eliminated. Business houses, warehouses, manufacturing plants, homes for the people are rising on all hands." So far as labor conditions are concerned, Premier Sifton said that they had been better this year than last. The work was there to do, and the men were there to do it.

In connection with the question of the Government controlling or supervising municipal taxes, he said that in the Province at large, supervision was already exercised to some extent. A municipality, when it wanted to issue debentures, had to apply to the Minister of Municipal Affairs, who, if the issue was in order, and was justified, gave the applicant a certificate to that effect.
Premier Sifton's words on the situation in the West are reassuring. They needed to be said, and the Premier of Alberta is in a position to say them and say them authoritatively. The West is all right, and furnishing more reasons than ever why it will have a splendid future—Canada's Courier.

FATHER AND SON ARE MURDER-ED AT THORNE, ALTA.

August T. Flynn, postmaster and store-keeper at Thorne, Alberta, died Saturday afternoon in the hospital at Coronation as the result of injuries received at the hands of a person or persons unknown last Monday morning.

His baby boy, three years old, was killed the same morning and the wife and mother had been committed for trial at Calgary on the charge of murdering her infant.
The two deaths are the outcome of the most terrible and mysterious affair in the history of the Coronation district. Last Monday morning when Manager Murray Anderson, manager of the National Elevator company at Thorne called at the post office for his mail he noticed that Mrs. Flynn, who served him, had a strange appearance.
He asked her what was the matter and she told him that she had killed my baby. At that moment Mr. Anderson heard a noise at the back of the office and looking through the post office window he saw Mr. Flynn with his face covered with blood, fall to the floor.

Mr. Flynn was horribly injured, an eye being torn out of his head and an awful cut being made above one of his temples. From the last, little hope of his recovery was held out, and he passed away Saturday without returning consciousness.
Coroner Armstrong held an inquest Saturday afternoon and the jury returned a verdict that Mr. Flynn's death was due to injuries inflicted by an axe, wielded by a person or persons unknown.

MAU, CLERKS WILL PETITION FOR MORE SALARIES

Calgary, Nov. 17.—Mail clerks from Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta are in Calgary, attending a meeting of the Railway Mail Clerks Federation.
The first session was held this morning. The salary question is the main subject for consideration and it is the intention of the Federation to strongly urge the Dominion government to increase the provisional allowance from $120 to $150 per year.
The clerks find that the increased cost of living in the west demands an increase of salary, and it is their purpose to agitate for a raise at the next session of the parliament at Ottawa.

SALVATION ARMY WEDDING

The following is taken from the Winnipeg Telegram of Nov. 15th and refers to two former Wetaskiwin residents.

Members of the Salvation Army, with many of their friends, gathered in the Elgin Avenue hall of the army, last evening to witness the wedding of two very popular officers, Captain Susie Bell and Captain W. J. Carstairs.
The hall was filled to capacity and many were unable to gain admittance, which showed the esteem in which the contracting parties are held. For some years the bridegroom has been an officers in the army, as has also the bride, and they were the recipients of many kind wishes from those who have labored with them in the cause they represent. Capt. Captain Walter Peacock officiated and read the simple ceremony. Lieutenant William Cooper was best man, while the bride's father, Florence Bell, acted as bride-maid. The decorations took the form of an arch, under which the ceremony was performed, presenting a brilliant picture.

Both captains have gained the hearty support of all with whom they have come in contact. Captain Carstairs is at present stationed in Cranbrook, B.C., while his wife has been identified with the local force. They will remain in Winnipeg for a few days, when they will leave for their new home in Cranbrook, stopping on the way at Wetaskiwin, where the bridegroom's parents reside. During the service messages were received from various parts of the Dominion conveying hearty congratulations.

other weary feelings which follow the wrong action of the liver.

Mrs. Eliza A. Ayer, Foxcroft, Ill., writes:—I was troubled with constipa-years ago my husband wanted me to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills as they had cured him. I got a box, and took them, and by the time I had taken three

Obituary

Harry Nelson and Miss Aldridge Pass Away. Funeral of Harry L. Swap.

The citizens of Wetaskiwin were greatly surprised on Saturday morning last to learn of the sudden death of Harry Nelson, son of Mr. Henry Nelson, deceased, who had not been in good health for some time. He was aged thirty-three years. He was born in the state of Idaho and came to Wetaskiwin about 12 years ago with his parents. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon service being conducted in the Salvation Army barracks by Capt. Hunt. The members of the local Orange Order attended in a body to pay their last tribute of respect to a departed brother. The pall bearers, who were officers of the order, were: J. Carter, W. M., T. Spencer, Rev. Sec., W. T. Lyle, D. M.; Fred Morris D.C.; S. Burns and Chas. Brown. The deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved father and brother Fred, both of whom are residents in the city.

The sad news was received in the city on Saturday last that Mrs. Aldridge, sister of Rev. A. T. Aldridge, had died at Vegreville the day previously after a short illness with pneumonia. The remains were laid to rest in the Edmonton cemetery on Sunday. Deceased was well known in Wetaskiwin where she resided with her brother and the deepest sympathy of the many friends here is extended to the bereaved relatives.

The funeral of Harry Lloyd Swap, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Swap of Stroud, took place in the Wetaskiwin cemetery on Saturday last. The service took its place on Friday, and the deceased was aged one year.

J. S. Watson Expresses His Views

Claims the Purchase of the New Machinery Was Justifiable. Wm. Dous Needed At the Plant.

To the Editor of The Times,

I beg to be allowed space in your issue of this week's Wetaskiwin Times to enlighten the consumers of Electric Light and Power, regarding plant conditions.

It being stated by the chairman of the plant committee that I was not to be depended upon, as I have put the city at an expense of $25,000 for machinery, by maintaining at the time of the purchase of said machinery that a steam plant could be run cheaply, then was the Gas plant at that time.

I still maintain the same views providing the plant had been completed that is, by installing condensing machinery.

My reason for holding back the condensing plant, was pending getting Natural Gas fuel, which we had at one time; but, sorry to say, that the one had—had diminished considerably I guess only for the meantime, at least I hope so.

He doesn't need to put the entire blame on to me, as an expert engineer was engaged and paid for to go into the existing conditions of the plant at the time, and I understand his decision was accepted.

As to the selling of the gas unit, I was certainly in favor of it before Natural Gas was struck, but now I am not so sure. I can see (and I think you will pay the city to hold onto it, even if it should require close attention and repairs when necessary. If it would for the Gas Engine at the present day.

the Gas well, would not be yielding any revenue to the city, as the present conditions of well, would be of no use to the steam plant.

I consider this city is in a good shape as any in the country to advertise, its prosperity in light and power for years to come. Twelve months ago we could not have done so had we refused customers. With the Gas engine for medium loads and steam unit for peak loads, puts me in a position to guarantee a profit at all times, and puts the plant into the position that a plant should be in.

Again you have an air compressor and Underwriters' Fire pump for fighting fire when needed, and as required by the Fire Underwriters' association, as well, it duplicates the old machine. These new machines you needn't be ashamed of, as they are up to date machines.

As to the case of Wm. Dous, whom some of the councillors are anxious to get rid of, I fail to see where they have any reason for so doing. I consider Dous one of the most reliable, handy and hard working employees which the city has got today. Besides I have him educated into this plant, should sickness or anything else befall me at any time, absent me from my duty, he could keep the plant in repairs, as well as to take the place of a dreamer or beginner who may be off sick, etc. In fact, the man of the plant is a good asset to the city to have in the plant.

Yours obediently, J. S. WATSON
